

Guideline for exhibited works at “JPAC Porcelain Painting Fair 2022” (including exhibition by photos)

Please confirm the following rules before submitting your works.

There is no theme for this year's fair, so please submit works on any theme.

Exhibition Guideline (including exhibition by photos)

The works must be hand-painted and meet the following rules.

- (1) The works must be completed by the exhibitor's own ability.
- (2) The works studied (made from copies of designs provided at classes, seminars, etc.) are not allowed.
- (3) It is not allowed to use the composition of existing artworks as the main motif, which violates copyright.
- (4) If you have appropriated the composition of an antique work that does not have a copyright, please attach a note stating the source of the work to the extent that it is clear at the time of submission. If the work is to be exhibited using photos, please notify us via e-mail.
- (5) Exhibiting works that have been previously published by the exhibitor is acceptable.
- (6) The use of decal paper (transfer paper) is not allowed.
- (7) The works should fit into a 60x60cm space. (The works must be at a height that does not interfere with safety and taking photos.)
- (8) Each work must be a single piece or a group of pieces (e.g., a set) based on a single theme.
- (9) If exhibiting with photos, please send one to three photos of the works with a quality of 1000 pixels or more.

Please note that the JPAC board members may decide whether or not to accept your entry based on the above rules.
